XI. And be it enacted, that the said Electors shall receive the same per view allowance and itinerant charges, as are allowed to members of the General Assembly.

XII. And whereas it may happen, that in the election of Representatives, two or more persons residing in the same district, may have an equal number of votes, and that in the election of Electors residing of the Western Shore, two or more persons residing at the shore may have an equal number of votes, and that in the election of Electors residing on the Eastern Shore, four or more persons residing at that shore may have an equal number of votes; But in that case, that in such of these cases, the Governor and Council shall determine by lot from the candidates, residing in the same district, the Representative for that district, and in the same manner from the candidates for Electors residing on the Western and Eastern Shore, respectively, for being an equal number of votes, as aforesaid. The Electors for the said Shore.

XIII. And be it enacted, that if a vacancy or vacancies shall happen in the representation of the State in the House of Representatives in the law year of the United States, by death, resignation, disqualification or other wise, the Governor and Council shall issue writs of election to the several counties of the State, the city of Annapolis, and Baltimore Town to fill such vacancy or vacancies by an election of a person to be a representation, residing in the district or districts where such vacancy or vacancies shall happen, in the manner hereinbefore presented.

XIV. And be it enacted, that after the election, herein before mentioned, shall have been made, the election of Representatives to be chosen shall be held in Maryland aforesaid on the first Monday of October in the year One Thousand seven hundred and twenty nine, and on the second day in every second year from thence forth, and returns thereof shall be made as aforesaid; and the Governor and Council, for the term being shall, as soon as conveniently may be, transmit a certificate of the election of the said Representatives, under the Seal of the State, to the President of the United States.

S. John Eager Howard, Governor of the State of Maryland
